

Multidisciplinary Inland Transport Security Expert Group
United Nations Economic Commission for Europe

Inland transport security
The way ahead: prevention and resilience?

Salle XI, Palais des Nations, Geneva
15 January 2009

Seminar program

10.00 Opening remarks

Mr. Rene Van Bever, Chairman, Inland Transport Security Expert Group

Ms. Eva Molnar, Director, UNECE Transport Division, TBC

10.20 – 11.20 Prevention: research and innovation

Mr. Martin Burkhardt, Director General, UIRR (International Union of combined Road-Rail transport companies)
COUNTERACT and INSECTT: pragmatic approaches to enhancing security

Dr. Andrzej Rucinski, Professor, University of New Hampshire, NI2
Centre for Infrastructure Expertise
Globally Integrated Security Environment (GISE)

Discussion

11.20 – 11.40 Break

11.40 – 13.00 Prevention: research and innovation (continued)

Mr. Henry Bolton, Senior Border Issues Advisor, Organization for Security and Co-operation in Europe (OSCE)
OSCE Border Management Staff College in Dushanbe: enhancing security and co-operation through education

Ms. Lindsey Barr, Manager, International Association of Public Transport (UITP),
Research and innovation in passenger public transport security

Mr. Tjien-Khoen Liem, Principal Scientific Officer, European Commission
European Commission's Security Research Programme

Discussion

13.00 – 15.00 Lunch break

15.00 – 16.20

Resilience: critical infrastructure protection and business continuity planning

Mr. Gilad Solnik, IIS Lead, Transported Asset Protection Association (TAPA)
Freight Security Standards, Trucking Security Requirements, Incident Reporting

Mr. Gary Bridgeman, Project Manager, Development and Deployment, ERTICO
Intelligent transport systems and services

Mr. Juha Hintsa, Senior Researcher, Cross Border Research Association
& EPFL, Lausanne
Feasibility study for intra-EU supply chain security toolbox/standard

Discussion

16.20 – 16.40 Break

16.40 – 17.40

Resilience: critical infrastructure protection and business continuity planning (continued)

Mr. Gordon Wright, Supply Chain Security, European Commission, TAXUD
Progress on the mutual recognition agreement between the EU and US and business continuity planning in the EU

Mr. Mark Miller, Vice-Chairman, EOS Board of Directors, Co-ordinator,
EOS Supply Chain Security Working Group
Supply Chain Security - Practical Experience

Discussion

17.40 – 18.00 Closing remarks

Mr. Rene Van Bever, Chairman, Inland Transport Security Expert Group