

UNECE

TRANS-EUROPEAN RAILWAY (TER) PROJECT

PARTICIPANTS

Armenia,

Austria,

Bosnia and Herzegovina,

Bulgaria,

Croatia,

Czech Republic,

Georgia,

Greece,

Lithuania,

Poland,

Romania,

Russian Federation,

Serbia,

Slovakia,

Slovenia

Turkey

ECONOMIC COMMISSION FOR EUROPE

TEM and TER revised Master Plan

Final Report

Volume I: Main text

Trans-European Motorway (TEM)
Trans-European Railway (TER)
Projects

2011

TER Activity

TEM and TER Master Plan:

- Infrastructure upgrade;
- Border-crossing improvement;
- Technical studies;
- Trainings.

Major TER activities:

- 45th session of the TER Steering Committee;
- Extraordinary 46th session in Belgrade:
Jan RACZYNSKI elected;
- New brochure “Why to join the TER Project”.

High-Speed Trains Project

High-Speed Trains benefits:

- considerable time savings;
- local economy boost;
- emissions reduction;
- safety.

The High-Speed Trains Master Plan:

- provides information;
- explains requirements;
- serves as a basis for political decisions;
- consists of two phases.

UNECE

Trans-European Railway High-Speed Master Plan Study

Phase 1

TER High-Speed Trains - Master Plan

Phase I has been focused on:

- collecting information;
- developing methodology;
- creating tool.

Phase II main goals are:

- improving methodology;
- collecting information;
- developing knowledge;
- assessing projects;
- identifying priorities;
- intensifying coordination.

Thank you for your attention!